Bible Thought Hebrews 4

14 Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has ascended into heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. 15 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to feel sympathy for our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are – yet he did not sin. 16 Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Thank God…

- that Jesus has finished his work on our behalf and now rules
- that Jesus understands us from his own experience
- that Jesus knows our weaknesses and our needs but never sinned
- there is so much mercy and grace available
- for the privilege of being able to approach him with confidence

Pray…

- we'd draw near and persevere in prayer, rather than drift
- we'd experience his mercy and grace and help in time of need
- we'd pray with confidence in full dependence on God
- for a richer sense of how wonderful it is draw near in prayer

Reaching Out

Give thanks for…

- our holiday club, the team involved in organising and helping
- for ten children hearing the gospel, and links with families
- for relationships with schools and their RE curriculum
- connections in the community through Toddlers

Let's pray for…

- school visits (25 Nov)
- school assemblies (14 Dec)
- for deeper/follow-on relationships with schools
- opportunities and friendships for families at the school gate

Ministry – Youth and Weekend Away

Youth

Give thanks for…

- those giving up time each week to prepare and lead studies
- new members moving up from Spotlight settling in
- this term's series looking at Jesus's interaction with different characters from Mark's Gospel
- youth serving in the band each first Sunday of the month

Please pray for…

- God to continue to grow, strengthen and establish the youth in their faith – confidence in God's word, and prayer
- a stretched team
- Christmas opportunities amongst the youth, and boldness to live and speak for Jesus amongst their peers
- those who are often absent, and how best to help disciple them

Weekend Away

Give thanks for…

- how time away together builds and deepens relationships
- the provision of comfortable rooms and peaceful grounds
- Olly Hallet serving us in giving a Bible Overview
- Edd and Zoe Salkield leading our children's work
- for all those involved in making our time away possible

Please pray for…

- for Olly, Edd and Zoe as they prepare to serve us
- for good relationship and communications with the venue
- for those serving over the weekend (inc music, activities)

Looking Beyond

Innes family

Give thanks for…

- God sustaining Graeme in his preaching
- God working through weakness
- the encouragement of teenage girls Bible studies in John's Gospel
